

Global Pandemic Telehealth Decision Trees

Specific to Public Health Emergency Guidance

Timed Services

All Specialties

Provider Type Matters

Communication Style

Sometimes the easiest way to solve a problem is a process of elimination and this can commonly be accomplished through a decision tree format. The following information is based on the IFR (Interim Final Rule) published in the Federal Register for guidance during the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Visits begin as a virtual encounter and once the provider type is determined, the source of communication and time are the variations to determining the proper code category to assign.

