

MAR 11th*12:00PM – 1:15PM*The Changing Face of E&M*Presented by:*Shannon DeConda

CPC, CPMA, CEMA, CEMC, CRTT; Partner, DoctorsManagement &amp; President, NAMAS

Scott Kraft

CPC, CPMA; Senior Compliance Consultant, DoctorsManagement

2019 brought about documentation relaxation; 2020 is a hold steady year while you get ready for the changes coming in 2021. During this interactive session, Scott and Shannon will discuss the changes and debate the areas that are still ill defined even with new guidance. Attendees with this session will receive a resourceful tool to help understand the changes as well as suggested provider education and preparation.

1:30PM – 2:45PM*I have an Employee Who Has Been Confirmed as ‘Excluded’ from Medicare- What Are My Options?*Presented by:*Robert Liles, JD & Paul Weidenfeld, JD,

LilesParker, Attorneys &amp; Counselors at Law

Working with excluded parties can come with severe penalties. If you find that you have been working with one, what should your next steps be? This webinar conducted by former US attorneys, Paul Weidenfeld and Robert Liles, discusses the process that should be taken after finding an excluded party or entity.

3:00PM – 4:15PM*The Compliance Quartet*Presented by:*Sean Weiss

CHC, CEMA, CMCO, CPMA, CPC-P, CPME, CPC;

DoctorsManagement Partner &amp; Vice President of Compliance

Frank Cohen

MPA, MBB; DoctorsManagement Director of Analytics &amp; Business Intelligence

The frequency and aggressiveness of government and third-party audits continue to increase and with that comes a greater need for the practice to keep up with policies, rules and technology. In this session, Sean Weiss and Frank Cohen will take you through the four most pressing compliance risk issues that their clients face. Mr. Cohen will take you through the foundational processes for both pre-audit risk assessment and post-audit extrapolation mitigation. Following, Mr. Weiss will talk about methods to incorporate risk-based auditing strategies into your compliance plan and of great importance, how to know whether you are facing an OIG self-disclosure or just a repayment.

MAR12th

12:00PM – 1:15PM

What is An Assessment & Plan and Why Does it Matter?*Presented by:*J. Paul Spencer

CPC, COC; DoctorsManagement Senior Compliance Consultant

In 2021, Evaluation & Management services will change to place more emphasis on the assessment and plan. In this portion of our virtual conference, Paul Spencer will show you how you can strengthen documentation of the assessment and plan, and how this will assist in reimbursement of other areas beyond E/M services.

1:30PM – 2:45PM

What You Need to Know About Teaching Physician Guidelines*Presented by:*Stephanie Allard

CPC, CEMA, RHIT; DoctorsManagement Senior Compliance Consultant

Pam Vanderbilt

CPC, CPMA, CPPM, CPC-I, CEMC, CEMA, CEMA-O; DoctorsManagement Senior Compliance Consultant

Join Pam and Stephanie as they dig into the complexities that facilities face in regards to maintaining coding and documentation compliance within a teaching facility. Often times as auditors we are the first real life exposure residents have to the coding process and we need to have a clear understanding of the teaching physician guidelines in order to help them navigate through what can be an overwhelming process.

3:00PM – 4:15PM

The New CMS Exclusion Rules and Enrollment Denials: What all Providers
Should Know*Presented By:*Amanda Waesch

Member, Brennan, Manna &amp; Diamond

This session will review the OIG's mandatory and discretionary exclusion rules as well as the exclusion period for Anti-Kickback Statute and Civil Monetary Penalties Law violations as well as new and expanded exclusion authorities. This session will walk through scenarios mandating exclusion as well as examples of the OIG's permissive exclusion authority. This session will outline the procedural rules governing the exclusion process. Finally, this session will also provide practical advice for employers and providers with respect to hiring or engaging with excluded individuals and best practices for a Corporate Compliance Program.

Register Now →To Register visit: namas.co/virtual-conference*www.namas.co | 877-418-5564